

NGH Hypnosis Certification Training

Become a Consulting Hypnotist through the National Guild of Hypnosis training course. After the comprehensive 100 hour program, you will have the ability to utilize multiple hypnosis techniques to positively affect clients immediately after the course completion. Help enable your clients to quit smoking, reduce stress, improve study skills, improve weight control and live happier, healthier lives.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Anyone interested in helping people change their lives. Hypnosis is a wonderful complementary modality for psychologists, psychiatrists, nurses, medical doctors, teachers, chiropractors, holistic healers and anyone else looking to help adults and children deal with all issues in our increasingly complex society.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Multiple ways to hypnotize clients, how to create confidence in your abilities, how to recognize different depths of the hypnotic state, hypnosis for smoking cessation, hypnosis for stress relief, hypnosis for improved study skills, how to build up your clientele, the power of sleep compounding, and rapid induction techniques. Additionally, the difference between the subconscious, unconscious and conscious minds, how to build rapport, methods of emerging from hypnosis and how to keep your practice safe and organized will be covered. Time will be included to address group concerns and interests in other topics.
